

INSTRUCTIONS

Please read carefully. An incomplete application may be returned to you, causing a delay in the processing of your application. If you need more space to complete an answer, add continuation sheets.

1. Can you file? You must be an eligible national of a foreign state (or parts thereof) or an alien having no nationality who last habitually resided in a foreign state that has been designated for Temporary Protected Status (TPS) by the Attorney General pursuant to section 244A of the Immigration and Nationality Act. You should check with the nearest office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) for

2. What documents do you need? You Do Not Need To Provide Original Documents With This Application.

You must give INS copies of documents to prove you are a national of the country designated for Temporary Protected Status, your date of entry into the United States, and your residence in the United States.

- A. INS may still require original documents from you in certain circumstances.
- B. Copies of documents in a foreign language must be accompanied by an English translation. The translator must certify that the translation is accurate and that he or she is competent to translate.
- C. Exception: If you are filing this application for annual registration/re-registration purposes (Part 1-2 on Form I-821) you do not have to submit any copies of documentation. You may, however, be asked for additional information and/or documentation in certain circumstances.

3. What documents do you need to prove identity and nationality?

Any of the following:

- A. Passport;
- B. Birth certificate accompanied by photo identification; or
- C. Any national identity document from your country of origin bearing photo and/or fingerprint.

4. What documents do you need to prove date of entry into the United States? Any of the following:

- A. Passport;
- B. I-94 Arrival/Departure Record;
- C. Copies of documents specified in item #5.

5. What documents do you need to prove residence in the United States? Any relevant documents such as:

- A. Employment records (e.g. pay stubs, W-2 Forms, certification of the filing of Federal income tax returns, state verification of the filing of state income tax returns, letters from employer(s) or, if you are self employed, letters from banks and other firms with whom you have done business.

In all of the above, your name and the name of the employer or other interested organization must appear on the form or letter, as well as relevant dates. Letters from employers must be in affidavit form, and shall be signed and attested to by the employer under penalty of perjury. Such letters must include: (1) your address(es) at the time of employment; (2) Exact period(s) of employment; (3) Period(s) of layoff; (4) Duties with the company. If the records are unavailable, an affidavit form-letter stating that your employment records are unavailable and why such records are unavailable may be accepted. This affidavit form-letter shall be signed and attested to by the employer under

- B. Rent receipts, utility bills (gas, electric, phone, etc.), receipts, or letters from companies showing the dates during which you received service;
- C. School records (letters, report cards, etc.) from the schools that you or your children have attended in the United States showing name of school and periods of school attendance;
- D. Hospital or medical records showing treatment or hospitalization of you or your children, showing the name of the medical facility or physician and the date(s) of the treatment or hospitalization;
- E. Attestations by churches, unions or other organizations to your residence by letter which: identify you by name; are signed by an official (whose title is shown); shows inclusive dates of membership; state the address where you resided during membership period; include the seal of the organization impressed on the letter or the letterhead of the organization, if the organization has letterhead stationery; establish how the author knows you; and establish the origin of the information being attested to;
- F. Additional documents may include: money order receipts for money sent in or out of the country; passport entries; birth certificates of children born in the United States; bank books with dated transactions; correspondence between you and another person or organization; Social Security card; Selective Service card; automobile license receipts, title, vehicle registration, etc.; deeds, mortgages, contracts to which you have been a party; tax receipts; insurance policies, receipts, or
- G. Any other relevant document.

6. What if documents are not available? If documents are not available, you can give INS an affidavit showing proof of unsuccessful efforts to obtain the documents, explaining why the consular process is unavailable (for identity documents), and affirming that you are a national of the designated state. Affidavits may also be used to help prove date of entry into the United States and residence in the United States. (INS may require a statement from the appropriate issuing authority, certifying that the needed document is not available.)

7. What else is required to be submitted with this application?

Two color photos of you taken within 30 days of the date of this application. The photos must have a white background, must be glossy, unretouched and not mounted. The dimension of the facial image should be about one inch from the chin to the top of the hair in a 3/4 frontal view, showing the right side of the face with the right ear visible. Using pencil or felt pen, lightly print name (and Alien Registration Number, if any) on the back of the photographs.

8. How should you prepare this form?

- A. Type or print legibly in black or blue ink or ball point pen.
- B. If you need extra space to complete any item, attach a continuation sheet, indicate the item number and date and sign each sheet.
- C. Answer all questions fully and accurately. If any item does not apply, please write "N/A."

9. Where should you file this form? The INS office having jurisdiction over your place of residence will accept this application, either in person or through the mail, or both. You should inquire at the local INS office for filing instructions.

10. What is the fee? First time applicants for Temporary Protected Status must pay a $50.00 application fee. There is no application fee for re-registration. All fees, except those presented when filing in person, must be in the form of a money order, cashier's check or certified bank check. NO PERSONAL CHECKS OF ANY TYPE WILL BE ACCEPTED. Cash is acceptable only when you present an application in person. DO NOT MAIL CASH. All money orders, cashier's checks or certified bank checks must be made payable in U.S. currency at a financial institution in the United States. Please assure that if a check or money order is drawn on the account of a person other than yourself, your name appears in the lower left corner on the face of the check or money order. If the check is not honored, INS will charge you $30.00.

Make the check or money order payable to "Immigration and Naturalization Service" However,

- A. if you live in Guam, make the check or money order payable to "Treasurer, Guam," or
- B. if you live in the U.S. Virgin Islands, make the check or money order payable to "Commissioner of Finance of the Virgin Islands."

11. Employment Authorization and Travel.

- A. Form I-765 is required for all TPS applicants, regardless of age, and regardless of whether employment authorization is desired, since the I-765 is the data entry document for the Temporary Protected Status Program. You may be charged a fee for filing the I-765, depending on the differing statutory and regulatory requirements that apply to you. Generally, if you need an employment authorization document, you must pay the application fee.
- B. If your application for Temporary Protected Status is granted and you desire to travel outside the United States and return, you must request advance parole from the district director having jurisdiction over your residence and pay the prescribed fee. A Form I-512 travel document will be issued to you if your request for advance parole is granted.

12. May the filing fees for Form I-821 and I-765 be waived? Yes. If you are poor and unable to pay the filing fees, 8 C.F.R. 103.7(c) provides that you may apply for a waiver of the filing fees. In order to obtain a fee waiver, you must submit with these forms a written statement, made under oath, affirmation, or pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1746, under penalty of perjury. In the written statement you must indicate that you believe you are eligible for Temporary Protected Status and that you want to have the filing fees waived. You must also indicate why you are unable to pay the required fees.

13. What is our authority for collecting this information? We request the information on the form to carry out the immigration laws contained in Title 8, United States Code, Section 1154(a). We need this information to determine whether you are eligible for immigration benefits. The information you provide may also be disclosed to other federal, state, local, and foreign law enforcement and regulatory agencies. You do not have to give this information. However, if you do not give some or all of it, your application may be denied.

14. Reporting Burden. Under the Paperwork Reduction Act, an agency may not conduct or sponsor an information collection and a person is not required to respond to an information collection unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. We try to create forms and instructions that are accurate, can easily be understood, and which impose the least possible burden on you to provide us with information. Often this is difficult because some immigration laws are very complex. The estimated average time to complete this application is 1 hour and 30 minutes computed as follows: 1) learning about the form, and understanding the instructions, 30 minutes; 2) collecting the necessary supporting documents 15 minutes; 3) completing the form, 15 minutes; and 4) traveling to and waiting at a preparer's office (e.g. attorney or voluntary agency), 30 minutes. If you have comments regarding the accuracy of this estimate, or suggestions for making this form simpler, you can write to the Immigration and Naturalization Service, HQPDI, 425 I Street, N.W.; Room 4034, Washington, DC 20536; OMB No. 1115-0170. DO NOT MAIL YOUR COMPLETED APPLICATION TO THIS ADDRESS.
